

H health

E ducation

L ead

P oisoning

CT State Goal:
End Childhood Lead
Poisoning by 2010

Join advocates, professionals, parents and elected officials to develop an action plan to end childhood lead poisoning in Connecticut!

Action to End Childhood Lead Poisoning: Policy Direction for Connecticut Roundtable

When: November 17, 2005 – Thursday Time: 8:00 am - 12:00 pm

Where Legislative Office Building, room 2A, Hartford, CT

Sponsored by Senator Toni Harp, Representative Peggy Sayers and Health Education Lead Poisoning (HELP) Coalition for CT's Children

Participants

Dr. Carl Baum, Yale Center for Children's Environmental Toxicology and Director of the Yale Regional Lead Program

Paul Hunter, Massachusetts Department of Public Health, Director of Lead Poisoning Prevention Program

Janet Scott Harris, New England Regional Director of the U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services, Office of Minority Health

Susan Thornfelt, Director, Maine Lead Action Project / Lisa Stapleton, CT Citizen Action
Group / Lauren Main, Connecticut Parent

Dr. Vivian Cross, Commissioner – CT Advisory Commission on Multicultural Health,

Commissioner J. Robert Galvin, Department of Public Health

Commissioner Betty Sternberg, Department of Education

Commissioner Pat Wilson-Coker, Department of Social Services

Commissioner Peter H. O'Meara, Department of Mental Retardation

Commissioner Darlene Dunbar, Department of Children and Families

R.S.V.P. Liz Brown, elizabeth.brown@cga.ct.gov or call 860-240-0042.

HELP Planning Committee Members: Connecticut Commission on Children, the Foundation for Educational Advancement, Connecticut Health Foundation, Inc. Advisory Council on Multicultural Health, Yale New Haven Hospital, Connecticut Children's Medical Center LAMPP Project, and Connecticut Birth to System

CEU's available for educators and health professionals by FEA, Inc, a CT CEU Provider